

DEDICATION

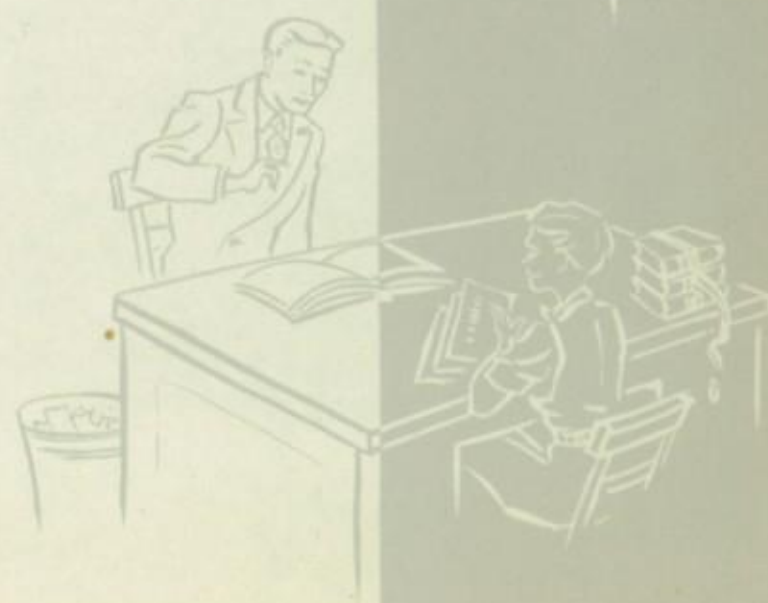

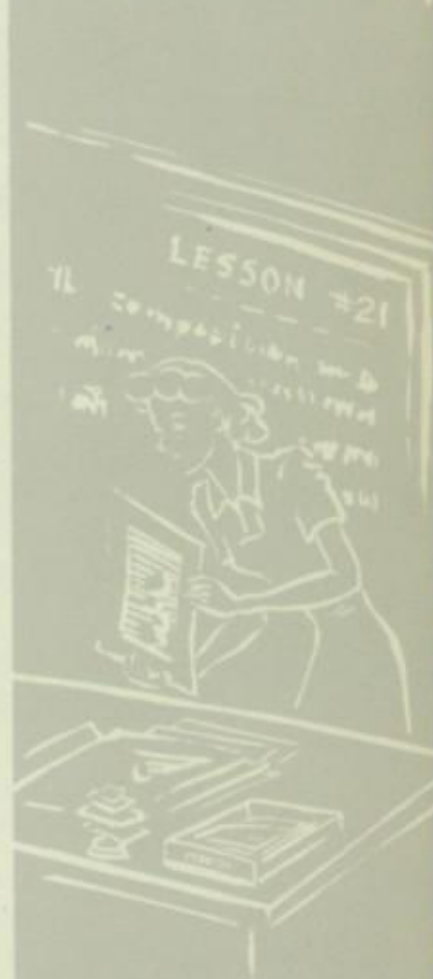

We, the staff of the first yearbook produced by the R-III High School, wish to dedicate our book to the ultimate success of our reorganization. We, as a staff and as a school, have learned to work together to accomplish the single purpose of unification which we believe will result in our mutual benefit.

We only hope that future classes will enjoy working together as we have.

To future students--We have laid the foundation; may you complete the structure.

Administration

Mr. James Roy Dinwiddie is a graduate of Warrensburg State College and the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Science in Education; a Bachelor of Science of Agriculture; and a Master of Arts in City School Administration. He has taken graduate work from Kansas University, Kansas State Agriculture College and the University of Missouri toward his Doctorate. In addition to his duties as Superintendent, he is teaching agriculture and Science. He has had nine years experience teaching Vocational Agriculture, four in the United States Department of Agriculture, Soil Conservation Service and sixteen years as a Superintendent of Schools.

Mrs. Walter Jensen holds a degree of Bachelor of Science in Education issued by Central Missouri State Teachers College at Warrensburg. In addition to this she has done graduate work in Missouri University.

With the exception of a few years at home, Mrs. Jensen has taught in Eolia High School since 1929 serving most of that time as Principal and two years as Superintendent. She is now co-sponsor of the Freshman and Senior classes and teaches classes in World History, American Problems, and Missouri History.

Mrs. Jesse Owen is a graduate of Culver-Stockton College holding an A. B. degree with majors in English and Social Science and minors in Bible Philosophy and Education. She did graduate work in English and Social Science in the University of Missouri. She taught twenty-three years in the Clarksville Public Schools and is now teaching classes in English and Citizenship in R-III. She is sponsor of the R-III Spotlite and of the Sophomore class.

Mr. David Bash is a graduate of Culver-Stockton College, holding a B. S. degree with majors in Physical Education and Biology, and minor in Mathematics and Education. He did graduate work in Missouri University towards his masters degree in Education. He has taught Math, Biology, Phys. Ed., and Coached at Clarksville for two years. Also he was acting principal for the same two years. He is teaching in the same capacity at the new high school of R-III. He is coaching both girls and boys teams along with his other classes in Math and Biology. He is the co-sponsor of the Freshman and Senior classes. Also he sponsors the Pep Squad.

Only two months after the opening of school, we had the misfortune of losing our Principle, Mr. A. N. Wilkinson, who went to Winfield to accept a job as Superintendent. Mr. Wilkinson was Superintendent of the Eolia High School last year.

SENIOR

Low Down

At the beginning of the year the Senior Class sponsored a trip to St. Louis to see Shakespeare's "As You Like It," starring Katherine Hepburn as Rosilind. We enjoyed this very much as we had been studying "As You Like It" in English classes.

We sponsored a Christmas party and dance, inviting the entire high school. This was not only the first party of the year, but our first at R-III High School. The evening was pronounced an outstanding success by everyone.

Pat Cohea, Mary Bryant, Sue Sitton, Carol Taylor and Doris Jensen are in the Glee Club, Doris is the accompanist.

In band Sue Sitton, Pat Cohea, Patsy Black and Louise Mackey play clarinets, Ray Tannehill is Mr. Taylor's pride and joy (he plays the euphone), and Eddie Akers plays the baritone.

Out of a class of twelve there were seven taking part in the Christmas program: Eddie Akers, Mary Bryant, Pat Cohea, Sue Sitton, Carol Taylor, and Doris Jensen assisted in providing the music and Louise Mackey played a leading part in the tableau.

Five Senior girls were on the Basketball team. They were Ruby Akers, Lorene Moore, Doris Jensen, Sue Sitton, and Mary Bryant. Eddie Akers and Delbert Govero played on the boys team and even though we didn't have a very successful season, they both had a good time playing ball and wish they were going to be here to play another year.

Sue Sitton and Louise Mackey were the cheerleaders from the Senior Class, the rest of the girls helped to make the noise. The Pep Squad was very faithful following the teams to all the games which was greatly appreciated by the boys. Mr. Bash was our Pep Squad sponsor and we think he did a fine job.

Our class is well represented in elective offices in the school as Mary Bryant is President of the Student Council, Sue Sitton is Editor of the Yearbook, also Art Editor and Pep Reporter of the paper, and Louise Mackey is Editor of the Spotlight and President of the Pep Squad.

In the spring we presented the play, "A Ready Made Family", a three-act comedy by Jay Tobias. The cast were as follows:

Agnes Martyn, a widow-----	Mary Bryant
Bob, her son-----	Ray Tannehill
Marilee, her elder daughter-----	Sue Sitton
Gracie, her younger daughter--	Patricia Cohea
Miss Lydia, her sister-in-law---	Carol Taylor
Henry Turner, a widower-----	Eddie Akers
Doris, his daughter-----	Doris Jensen
Sallie, his daughter-----	Ruby Akers
Begonis, colored cook-----	Lorene Moore
Nicodemus, colored handy man---	Delbert Govero
Assistant Director and Promptor-	Louise Mackey
Stage and Property Manager-----	Patsy Black

This Senior Class will have the distinction of being the first to be graduated from our new R-III High School. We wish to extend every good wish to the classes which will follow and to everyone who is working to promote this forward movement in the education of the youth of our re-organized district.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of R-III, being of sound mind, do on this May 17, 1951, declare this to be our last will and testament. In our last four years in the hallowed halls of learning we have become possessors of various and sundry objects and habits which we now pass on to our successors. We hope that our accumulation of said articles and habits have not been in vain and that others may profit by and carry on what we are forced to leave behind.

We, Sue Sitton and Delbert Govero, will to Marilyn Clark and Alvin Barnes our jobas sign painters. Do a good job kids.

I, Ruby Akers, leave my basketball jersey with number "10" to "Whitie" and my love for Elsberry to Helen Hopkins.

I, Doris Jensen, bequeath my little black book "An Alibi For Every Occasion" to Essie Jester and my glasses to "Stumpy".

I, Eddie Akers, leave my Cassanova personality to Jimmy Wafee, and my cute grin to all the future R-III girls.

I, Lorene Moore, will my giggle to Eva Herriman, and my expressive vocabulart to Bettie LaRue. It always comes in handy Bettie.

I, Ray Tannehill, bequeath my willingness to work hard to Jerry McDannold and my "limousine" to Mr. Taylor, so he won't be late for school.

I, Carol Taylor, will to Dewannah Elgin my shy unassuming ways and my love for soldiers to Dixie Lawrence.

I, Pat Cohea, bequeath my ability to get out of taking exercises in Phys. Ed. to anyone interested. Coach loves it.

I, Mary Bryant, leave my ability to have three dates in one night to Bette Dewey and my wittiness to Johnny Taylor.

I, Patsy Black, leave my place on the honor roll to Nancy Van Ree. Think you'll make it Nancy?

I, Louise Mackey, leave my nose for news to Freddie Troutner. Be sure and contribute to the "Spotlite", Freddie.

CLASS PROPHECY

In view of the fact that every group of illustrious Seniors must have a prophecy, we would like to record on this page (for the use of posterity) our idea of what the future will hold for our lordly and all knowing Senior Class.

We shall now transport you to a news commentator's booth in the year of 1975.

"This is Stew Drearson, your WORZ news commentator, coming to you from Washington D. C. by the compliments of Crunchie Wunchies, the cereal that says 'Good Morning*.'"

"I have just spoken to President Tannehill and he says, 'If I am re-elected I will see to it that all of my old friends get jobs in Washington. I will also get wealthy spouses for those who do not want to draw a paycheck. I will make Mrs. Patricia Cohea Brown, mother of seven children, an ambassador to Siberia (for a rest), Rich Govero, the U. S. ambassador of good will to Paris (I think he will enjoy it), and Patsy Black will be the head janitor in the White House, she is a good clean-cut girl.'"

"The critics are still raving about the debut of Miss Rubiem Loree Akers in grand opera last night. She sang Brunhilde in Wagner's 'Valkyrie'. Her performance was perfect except for one flat B.

Flash: "It has just been announced that Sue (bring'em back alive) Sitton, on her twelfth trip through the wilds of Africa has brought back a record number of animals. She says 'My life is rugged but think of my classmates who got married'."

"The First Lady, Mrs. Doris Jensen Tannehill, entertained in the White House yesterday with a tea. Important guests were: Mrs. Edwin D. Akers, wife of the 'Patent Pill King', Mrs. Louise Mackey Vanderbone, President of the Liars Club of America, and Miss Mary Bryant, the first woman to make a solo flight to the moon in a rocket made of orange crates."

Flash: "The winner of today's marble tournament has just been announced. It is Mrs. Lorene (knuckles down) Moore Jones. She won it with a beauty of a long shot that knocked out twenty of her opponents marbles."

"One of my informers informs me that Miss Carol Taylor has made over a million dollars this year from the manufacture of overshoes for house pets."

That is all for tonight from your friend and commentator Stew Drearson, and don't forget, with Crunchie Wunchies, there's not a hard crunch in a whole bunch."

Junior Activities

The Junior Class carries on many of the school activities which make the social life more pleasant. The Juniors sponsor the banquet and dance which are held to honor the Seniors. They spend much time and no little thought in planning elaborate decorations and in arranging an attractive program for this gala occasion.

The trip which is also arranged for the Seniors is another Junior responsibility as well as pleasure.

In order to have money for these "do's" the Juniors hold food sales, give plays, and sponsor dances and parties.

The Junior Class started out the new year with a bang by sponsoring a party on January 12th. This party was to make money and the entire high school group was invited. A very pleasant evening was spent dancing by music from a juke box. The refreshments of punch and cookies were enjoyed by all.

On March 3rd we sponsored a food sale in Clarksville and Eolia. The proceeds from this sale went into the fund for a Senior trip and banquet.

The Juniors were very proud to take part in the Christmas program. Irene Graue and Mary Akers were readers for the tableaux. Don Jenkins played the part of Joseph in one scene. Jimmie Magee, Alfred Baumann, and James Wheeler were kings. The Girls' Glee Club furnished appropriate music for the tableaux.

The Junior Class held a meeting early in the school year to elect officers and a sponsor. The officers were as follows; Irene Graue, President; Don Jenkins, Secretary; Jerry McDannold, Treasurer; Phoebe Steele, Reporter; and Mr. Taylor, Sponsor. Our Student Council representative were, Mary Akers and Alfred Baumann.

Those on the Annual Staff were Eva Herriman and Biny Davidson.

Four members of our Junior Class were selected to work on the Paper Staff, namely--Phoebe Steele, Eva Herriman, Irene Graue, and Don Jenkins.

We are proud to claim several Junior classmen on the Basketball squads. The girls on the team were Eva Herriman, Irene Graue, Mary Akers, Bette Dewey, and Biny Davidson. The boys on the team were Jerry McDannold, one of the first five, and Don Jenkins, Charlie Carlton, Alfred Baumann, and Jimmie Magee helped to make the Second team with James Wheeler, Assistant Manager of the team.

Six Juniors were members of the Glee Club; Cordelia Barber, Dorothy Windmiller, Alice Ann Shepherd, Betty Bryant, Phoebe Steele, and Biny Davidson.

The Band members from our class were Eva Herriman, Phoebe Steele, Biny Davidson, Jerry McDannold, Don Jenkins, Charlie Carlton, Charles Callison, Jimmie Magee, and James Wheeler.

Most of our Junior girls seemed to be interested in the Pep Squad and we claimed four of the six Cheer-leaders--namely, Phoebe Steele, Eva Herriman, Mary Akers, and Irene Graue.

During the 1st semester Jimmie Magee and Jerry McDannold held the position as librarians. The second semester Irene Graue, Mary Akers, and Alfred Baumann were assigned as librarian.

Sophomore Activities

The Sophomores are proud of their school record for 1950-51. Four boys, namely, Fred Troutner, Robert Wilhoit, Lewis Teshay, and Billy Buchanan made the first team in Basketball. Robert Wilhoit made two all star teams, while Fred Troutner received honorable mention at the Bowling Green tournament.

Tommy Sitton and Paul Bryant were on the Freshman and Sophomore team in the Louisiana Tournament.

All the boys are good timber for softball.

Three sophomore girls, namely, Shirley Hunter, Bettie LaRue, and Shirley Rombach were firsts in Girl's Basketball. Betsy Griffith made the team near the end of the season.

Eleven sophomore girls are on the Pep Squad.

The Girl's Glee Club boasts ten sophomore, while the Boy's Glee Club has five boys from this class.

Aaron Church, who plays the Clarinet, has made the Concert Band.

The Spotlight has seven Sophomores on the staff.

Serving for the first semester as Librarian were Shirley Hunter, Shirley Rombach, and Pat Donelson. Betsy Griffith was in the office force for the first semester. For the second semester Forest was the office attendant and Robert Wilhoit and Aaron Church served in the library.

The gym was the scene of an impressive coronation ceremony at the Sophomores party, a St. Valentine Celebration. The stage was beautifully decorated in Valentine colors, with numerous white tapers in candelabras.

Jo Ann Patton and John Wheeler, both Freshmen in school, were elected to this honored position in a contest held by the four classes. The losing candidates were the attendants of the King and Queen.

Seniors: Ruby Akers and Delbert Govero

Juniors: Eva Herriman and Don Jenkins

Sophomores: Betsy Griffith and Fred Troutner

After the colorful coronation ceremony the King and Queen were escorted from the stage to a throne in the gym from where they and their guests watched a stage show of skits by the High School classes. Mr. Taylor and his concert band played throughout the program.

Later in the evening dancing was enjoyed in the gym and ice cream and angel cake was served.

At Christmas time the Sophomores gave a one act play, "Even In The Back Streets." The Cast of characters was as follows:

Allie-----Pat Donelson

Matil-----Carole Nulsen

Tierna-----Shirley Rombach

Greselda--Dewanah Elgin

Lom-----Tommy Sitton

Nik-----Alfred Hopkins

The Military Police--Bud Teshaw

Joseph-----Billy Buchanan

Franz-----Fred Troutner

Lutz-----Forest Baker

A Boy-----Robert Wilhoit

Betsy Griffith was honored with the part of Mary in the Christmas Tableaux.

The Sophomore girls sang in the chorus for the Christmas Program.

The Sophomore class in connection with their Valentine Party raised ninety dollars to help publish the Spotlight. This class thinks it has a right to free proud of this years record.

Freshman Activities

The Freshman class came into R-III thirty-one strong and have been active throughout the school year. They have been well represented in school activities. There are thirteen who play in the Band, eight who are on the Basketball squads and ten who are in the Pep Squad.

The whole class gave a play for Brotherhood Week, several members of the class were in the stunts given at the Sophomore party and the King and Queen of Hearts, elected on St. Valentine's Day were our own JoAnn Patton and John Wheeler.

Alvin Barnes, a freshman known as Chubby, won the contest for raising funds for the Spotlight.

Aside from these accomplishments the Freshmen rank high as the school's noise makers, cartoon decorators, study hall chair shufflers, corridor promanaders, beau catchers, and errand boys.
